UNIVERSITY LIFE

Homecoming Week Full of Exciting Activities

Homecoming 1971 included a week full of exciting activities for the student body. Monday night began the week with a dance in the Student Center. Tuesday was voting day for the Homecoming Queen and Court. The Ten Finalists were announced at the SGA movie on Wednesday night. They were Jackie Coker, Debbie Walker, Debbie Flowers, Janet Wilkinson, Libbye Lloyd, Lessie Elder, Pat Trawick, Bernice Granger, Faye Allen, and Winkie Jennings. The Alpha Phi Omega Annual Hanging Ceremony was staged Thursday afternoon. The Pep Rally and bonfire were held that night with the Homecoming Dance following on Friday night in the Student Center. The Queen and Court were announced at the dance.

Homecoming Day was full of activities for students and all alumni and guests. The day began with the parade through downtown at 10:00. A luncheon for all alumni was held in Shackelford Dining Hall. The Homecoming Queen and her Court were presented at the pre-game show which also featured the Sound of the South. The mighty Red Wave brought excitement to all the crowds with its 21-14 victory over the Florence State Lions. The culminating event of Homecoming 1971 was the SGA Big Name Entertainment in Sartain Hall, featuring the nationally-known Hamilton, Joe Frank, and Reynolds.

Miss Faye Allen Reigned as Homecoming Queen

Miss Faye Allen, a lovely brunette from Tallapoosa, Georgia, reigned over Homecoming activities as the 1971 Queen. First alternate was Jackie Coker of Greenville, Alabama; second alternate was Pat Trawick of Opelika, Alabama; and third alternate was Janet Wilkinson of Montgomery, Alabama. Miss Allen, a junior, was a member of the Sound of the South Wavettes and Alpha Delta Pi Social Sorority. Her sponsor for the Homecoming competition was Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity.

Phi Mu and Tau Kappa Epsilon were the winners in the sorority and fraternity float competition, with the HPER Club winning in the Independent division. Dill Hall placed first in the Men's Residence Hall competition and the winner in the Women's Residence Hall division was Clements Hall.

Sigma Pi Installed as 119th National Chapter

The Delta Psi Chapter of Sigma Pi Fraternity was formally installed Friday, November 12, 1971. Delta Psi became the 119th chapter of Sigma Pi and was the second chapter to be installed in Alabama.

The installation took place at the Troy Holiday Inn at 2:00 p.m. and was followed by a banquet at 7:00 p.m. which an estimated one hundred persons attended. Among the guests at the banquet representing Troy State were President and Mrs. Ralph Adams and Dean and Mrs. Donald J. Gibson. Dean Gibson was the guest speaker for the night.

Among the guests present from Sigma Pi National were Dean Crook, present Executive Secretary; Thomas A. Moore, Jr., present Director of Chapter Services; Lawrence H. Bixby, present Province Archon; Col. Walter Lammond, past Grand Sage; Doug Sittason, Sage of Alpha Delta Chapter of Auburn University; and several members of Alpha Delta Chapter.

Broadway Musical Camelot Featured at Troy State

The Troy State University School of Fine Arts presented its first musical Production, Camelot, on November 16-17.

The Broadway musical, which featured many outstanding TSU students and a number of highly unusual props, was under the direction of Phil Kelley of the TSU music department.

Camelot is based on T. H. White's book, The Once and Future King, and the musical was composed by Lerner and Loewe. It is set during one of the most beautiful ages in man's history, a time of splendor and adventure. It is natural for this era to be the setting of our most memorable of fairy tales.

The beautiful and sparkling Queen Guinevere was portrayed by Patti Mitchell, a junior from Crestview, Florida. Acting and singing the demanding role of King Arthur was Billy Goodwin, a junior from Courtland, Alabama. Larkin Brown played Sir Lancelot.

Billy Goodwin gave an excellent performance as King Arthur.

Merlin portrayed by Mike Edwards and Sir Dinadan played by Gene Kleiderer.

Patti Mitchell inspired the audience with her beautiful voice and fine performance as Guinevere.

TSU Playmakers Present "The Miser" in November

The Troy State Playmakers have proven once again that the humor created by a playwright over 300 years ago can still sparkle when presented to a modern sophisticated audience. The Miser, by Moliere, received skillful handling by its director, Dr. David Dye, and some first-rate acting performances by Troy State students. The result was another quality display of theatre, the fifth consecutive well-received show by the TSU Playmakers under Dr. Dye's direction and the first under Troy State's newly-organized School of Fine Arts.

The relatively large cast for the Miser featured four veteran performers with the Playmakers and a host of newcomers. Anchoring the cast were Mike Edwards in the title role, Candace Jenison as Mariane, Gene Kleiderer as Jacques, and Larkin Brown as LaFleche. Other members of the cast included Jerome Olds, Doug Nelson, John McVay, Larry Fletcher, Barbi Brockman, Horace Carlton, Chris Street, Polly Propst, Tolly Kovak, and El Layton.

The Miser was presented as a part of the American College Festival, a competition to choose ten college productions from across the nation to perform in Washington, D. C., in April 1972.

Preservation Hall Band Presents Jazz Concert

The Percy Humphrey Band on tour from the world famous Preservation Hall in Old New Orleans appeared in concert in Smith Auditorium on November 3, 1971. Each of the members of the Preservation Hall Jazz Bands has memories of the days when jazz was taking form and shape and becoming a separate kind of music. They are the people who helped make the history of New Orleans legendary music, the music which brings tales of joy, sorrow, and blues in the same spirit that made Jazz the uninhibited music of the period around the first world war. New Orleans music is happy music, it is simple in technical terms and complex in performance. It won't cease to exist when these wonderful people are no longer with us, but it will never be the same because New Orleans Jazz is an attitude, a freedom of the spirit, and a memory of parades and dances and a good life. It is made up of years and is played by the people who have played it for fifty years in the parishes around New Orleans. They know the music best, and they play it the way it was created.

Dr. Johnny Long, Director of "The Sound of the South."

Talented Ten Leads Red Wave Teams to Victory

The Troy State cheerleading squad boasts an outstanding crew of spirited yell leaders. These ten added much to the school spirit and enthusiasm displayed at TSU games. They just couldn't be beat! Cheerleading involves more than boosting the mighty Red Wave morale with yells. TSU cheerleaders composed an outstanding theatrical troop, too. Original skits done by the talented ten sent hoops of laughter rumbling through Sartain Hall on many occasions. One of the other squad traditions started during '71-'72 was the series of contests that led to the weekly awarding of the "spirit seat." This trophy was presented to the organization showing the best school spirit through the media of posters, noise makers, costumes, etc. Each of the practices, yells, chants, and stunts reflects the deep feeling of pride in TSU shared by students, alumni, and fans from all over.

Saga Foods Entertained With Fashion Shows

As part of a special events program, Saga Food Services sponsored a weekly fashion show in the University dining halls. Local merchants including The Outrigger, Leon's, Rosenberg's, Newman's Men Shop, The Fashion Shoppe, and Stanton's participated by furnishing clothing. University students modeled the latest in men's and women's attire as an entertainment feature during noon meals.

Air Force ROTC — A New Look on TSU's Campus

Thunderbird Leader and Cadet Rainey discuss precision flying at Craig A.F.B.

Air Force ROTC is alive on the Troy State campus and doing well. Since the beginning of the program here a year ago, the cadets in the Corps have proven themselves capable of becoming Air Force officers.

The detachment has been honored by special visits by such High Ranking personnel as Brigadin General Benjamin B. Cassidy, Commandant of Air Force ROTC, Colonel Jack L. Watkins, Deputy Commandant, and Colonel Peter D. Summer, Commandant of Area C.

The Air Force ROTC program is represented in many areas of campus life. The cadet Corps involves members of Kappa Omicron, the football team, the cheerleaders, the track team, the Band, fraternities, and other student leader groups.

Full Air Force sponsored scholarships have been awarded to the Professional Officer Course Cadets Joe Edgar, Mark Springer, Joe Mazzone, and Tom Wynn.

Air Force ROTC and Troy State University look forward to a long and happy association while providing opportunities and challenges for tomorrow's leaders.

2500 People Fill Sartain Hall for Challenge '72

The Challenge '72 Rally was the conclusion of almost a year's intensified work by Christian students and faculty. With great desire to proclaim the excitement possible in Jesus Christ to as many people as possible, the plans to produce a gigantic Christian rally began to take shape. Consulting with campus and community officials, the Challenge '72 Executive Committee (Dr. Nick D'Andrea, Mr. Joe Griffin, Mr. Bo Gaylord, Andy Hepburn, Charlotte Nelson, Tommy Isbell, Vicki Gaines, and Hank Erwin) put together what presented itself to be an extraordinary rally. Then, God began to work in big ways, Mr, Ron Adema of the Billy Graham Association volunteered his services from Birmingham to help co-ordinate, publicity sources were secured and the budget increased. By March 1972, Challenge '72 was establishing itself as the largest event in the history of South Alabama. Churches and civic groups from as far away as Florida became involved and prominent personalities in the Christian world volunteered to come and take part in the program — Mike Kolen of the Miami Dolphins; Mrs. Chris Ahern, Miss Mississippi of 1971; the folk singing group "The Soulseekers;" Mr. Dick Vigneulle, V.P. City Federal Savings and Loan of Birmingham; and Mr. Wales Goebel of the Wales Goebel Evangelistic Association. The event was enthusiastically endorsed by President Adams, Mayor James Ray, and even Coach Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys.

On April 6, 1972, over 2,500 people filled Sartain Hall while over a million listened by radio on a six station statewide hookup. Over 350 decisions for Christ were made publicly that night and over 2200 decisions were made preceding the event by high school rallies. As a result of the close cooperation among the students and citizens, the Rally budget of $3,500 was tailored to $2,400 AND IT WAS EASILY MET including an excess, and Challenge '72 proved to be a tremendous display in the interest still prevalent in Jesus Christ.

New World Record Set in Olympic Benefit Relay

Troy State's effort in the 24-hour Olympic benefit relay held in mid-June was declared a world record by relay officials in California. Runner's World Magazine, the originator of the event, verified the mark.

Troy's five man team covered 227 miles, 720 yards during the 24-hour period which surpassed a 217 mile mark set by the Bushwack Bunch from Freemont, California, earlier in the spring.

The relay, a nationwide effort by distance running enthusiasts to raise money for the U. S. Olympic team's trip to Munich, Germany, was the only of its kind to be held in Alabama.

The Troy team, made up of four Red Wave distance stars and a former U. S. Olympian, also snapped the record posted by a seven man squad which stood at 210 miles.

Nick Costes, a 46-year-old member of the Troy State Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Department and former Olympic Marathon runner, paced the team and ran the initial mile in Troy's Memorial Stadium. Costes, who reigned as a national marathon champion in the 1950's, covered 46 miles in the relay and ran a 5:58 time on his final mile.

Rick Stetson, a Troy State distance record holder and Olympic hopeful, ran the fastest mile in the event — a 5:01 his first time out. Like Costes, Stetson covered 46 miles and turned in a 5:10 time on the final leg.

Bob MacLeod, Larry Davis, and Mike Varnum, all members of TSU's Gulf South Conference championship cross country team, each covered 45 miles.

Pledges from local merchants for each mile run accounted for more than $500 for the Olympic fund.

The five man team averaged a 6:01 mile during the 24 hour period, however, all ran better than the 6 minute mark for the first 18 hours.

Nick Costes, a former marathon national champion, ran the initial mile.

Costes hands-off to Stetson to begin the second mile of the 24-hour relay.

Miss Diane Roney, Miss Pike County, handed-off to Nick Costes to begin the relay.

ΑΔΠ Takes ΣΠ Powder Puff Championship

Alpha Delta Pi Sorority upset defending champion Phi Mu in the annual Sigma Pi Powder Puff Football Jamboree held during spring quarter.

In an evening when tied games prevailed, the ADPi's broke open in the closing seconds of the championship game with Phi Mu to take the title and trophy.

In earlier jamboree action, Phi Mu topped the KD's in a sudden death play-off. After a 0-0 tie at the end of regulation play, the game went into the play-off with each team attempting to score or make the deepest penetration into enemy territory.

A late burst by the Phi Mu's carried them for 84 yards total offense to top the KD's 60 yard total.

In the second game, AGD and ADPi battled to a 6-6 tie at the end of regulation play. ADPi won on the greatest total yards in overtime play and went on to top Phi Mu for the crown.

Crowned as Powder Puff Queen was Pat Murphy who represented Alpha Gamma Delta. Queen Pat and escort Mary Ellen Ford were treated to a steak dinner compliments of Holiday Inn.

The Powder Puff Court included Bill Stewart and Dawn Wilkes, Phi Mu; Larry Hollington and Kathy Meacham, KD; and Doug Sanders and Carolyn Sullivan, ADPi.

Mary Ellen Ford escorted Queen Pat Murphy, Alpha Gam entry in the Jamboree beauty pageant.

The "Slop of the South" entertained with halftime festivities.

Delta Sigs Tour Disney World and Cape Kennedy

Troy State's Eta Kappa chapter of Delta Sigma Pi Professional Business Fraternity undertook the most ambitious professional tour in the chapter's history in early March, 1972. Members journeyed to Orlando and central Florida one weekend for several tours and excursions. The brothers toured Martin Marietta, a manufacturer of space and defense equipment, then drove to the Atlantic coast for a complete tour of Cape Kennedy, including Apollo 16, which journeyed to the moon in mid-April. The tour stopped at the astronaut's training center where the brothers saw the three Apollo 16 astronauts, Young, Duke, and Mattingly training for their mission, a rare sight for sightseers. The fraternity also spent a whole day at the newly opened Walt Disney World. There were many fascinating rides, shows, and attractions in this mammoth park. It all proved to be a whirlwind but fun-filled weekend. Delta Sig financed the trip, as it does all professional tours, by various money-making projects throughout the school year. The brothers feel the trip was well worth the efforts spent and another big professional tour is planned for next year.

APOLLO 7

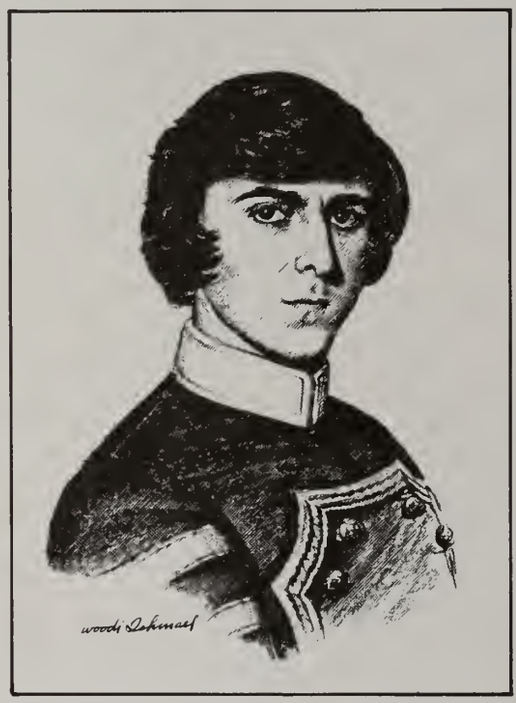

The Memorandum

The Playmakers winter production for 1972 was Valclov Havel's "The Memorandum" and it was presented in Smith Auditorium on February 16-18. "The Memorandum" is a remarkably witty assault on the madness of efficiency peculiar to total bureaucracy. In a large office, and unknown to the Managing Director, a new language called ptydepe is installed as the official means of inter-office communication. As the play progresses, we learn that ptydepe is known to but a handful of people, that only the most resolute can learn it, and that is, when learned, almost impossible to use. The Playmakers production of "The Memorandum" was a delightful experience for all who were entertained by it.

The Troy State Opera Workshop Presents "CARMEN" by Bizet

Debbie Dominey . . . Carmen

Jerome Olds . . . Don Jose

Patti Mitchell . . . Micaela

Philip Kelley . . . Escamillo

Troy State's opera workshop production of Bizet's "Carmen" was presented on March third and fourth. The opera which was originally written in French was performed in English and it followed the style of opera comique. The four act opera which was streamlined into a two and one-half hour production featured many Troy State students and some students from the Troy elementary schools participated in the childrens chorus. Mr. Philip Kelley, opera workshop director, Dr. William Denison, chorus director, and Mr. Don K. Patmon, orchestra director, combined their efforts and produced a fine opera.

Although the plot of a gypsy girl enticing a soldier to forsake his home and country to join a smugglers band had adult appeal, the entire audience was enticed by the excitement of soldiers, gypsies, and toreadors, set in the background of Spain. The action included violent duels, moments of rage, beautiful love scenes, and a violent death scene. Carmen is killed by Don Jose in a violent death scene outside the arena, and this ends the action of the opera. The scenes and songs are carried on in the minds of the audience which was awed by the performance.

You're A Good Man Charlie Brown

Good grief, an outdoor dinner buffet! The spring quarter production of "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown" was staged in the courtyard of Kilby Hall. Under the direction of Dr. David Dye and the vocal coaching of Mr. Philip Kelley, the production delighted many audiences during the Charlie Brown tour. The tour included performances in Ft. Payne, Abbeville, and Luverne. Music for the production was provided by a combo of piano, bass, and flute. We had spaghetti at our house three times last week. Happiness is a peanut butter and jelly sandwich. Psychiatric help five cents, please. Some mornings I get up and watch the sun rise.

Tango

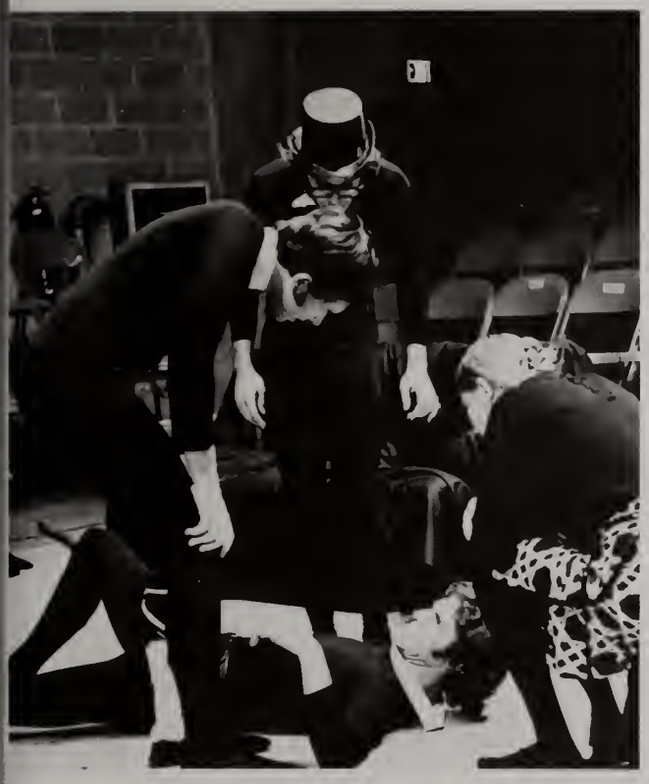

On July fifteenth and sixteenth, nineteen seventy-one, the Troy State University Playmakers under the direction of Dr. David Dye presented Tango by Slawomir Mrozek, translated by Ralph Manheim and Teresa Dzieduscycka. Tango is lively and witty enough to command attention in any circumstances, but apart from its intrinsic attractiveness, it must also be seen as a parable of modern history, with the Bohemian family reflecting the disorder of life.

Troy State Graduates Nearly 1,000 Students In June

Graduation was a long awaited experience for the graduating class of 959 students in June. The total included 769 bachelor's degrees, 186 master's degrees, and 4 associate degrees.

After the invocation led by Mr. Virgil Collins and songs by Mrs. Jean Barr, Dr. Ralph Adams introduced the speaker for the occasion. Giving the Baccalaureate Address was the Honorable Theodore C. Marrs, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Reserve Affairs.

During the special awards part of the program, Dr. Gertrude Schroeder was presented the Ingalls Award for Excellence in Classroom Teaching. Along with her certificate, she received a check for $1,000.

Netmen Capture A.C.C. Championship

The TSU tennis team captured the A.C.C. championship for 1972. The Red Wave, led by top man Larry Simpson, closed the season with a 6-1 record. Troy's only defeat was an upset victory by Columbus College. The tennis team, under the coaching of Ken Mitchell, displayed a winning spirit and attitude in all of their triumphs and in their defeat. This year the tennis team faced such opponents as The University of Montevallo, Huntingdon, Florence State, Jacksonville State, and Columbus College. This was the toughest schedule the Wave has faced in recent years.

Wave Baseball Has That 'Never Say Die' Spirit.

Golf Season 10-2

Troy State's golf team closed out their season with a 10-2 record. This is the best record the wave has boasted in several years. The two losses were to St. Bernard College, the defending NAIA golf champions. The Wave finished fourth in Gulf South Conference Play as Nichols State won the top position. The Wave golfers faced one of their toughest schedules this year. Under the coaching of Jim Blair, the golfers faced such teams as Montevallo, St. Bernard, Huntingdon, Florence, Jacksonville State, and other teams in the Gulf South Conference Tournament.

TSU Track Team Has Its Third Straight Undefeated Season

The TSU Track Team has completed its third consecutive undefeated season. The team also won the NAIA District 27 championship. At the District 27 meet four district records were set by TSU Trackmen. Rick Stetson set records in the 3 mile and in the steeple chase. James Batie beat the existing record in the 220. Art Drevins set a new record in the mile. The Track Team won meets at the Alabama State Meet in Montgomery, The South-East Relays, and The Selma Invitational Meet.

Sportsmanship Grows Through Intramural Competition

Many Troy Students participate in the busy campus world of intramural sports. Intramurals are open to all students, greek or independent. Football, basketball, volleyball, and softball provide recreation, team spirit, and competition for all who are willing to participate. Alpha Gamma Delta won the volleyball championship. Football, basketball, and softball were won by Alpha Delta Pi. In fraternity intramural action Delta Chi won basketball, and football and softball were won by Pi Kappa Phi. Independent champions were: football, the Mexican Heartburn; basketball, the Nads; and softball, the Super Stars.

The Troy State Student Government Association again this year brought big names to Troy. The S.G.A. provided entertainment for students with their current movies and their student center dances. The S.G.A. has sponsored several Frog Festivals and other events on campus. The senate has helped to provide continuous service in the dining halls and helped to give the students a strong voice in the governing of the Troy State Campus.

Pat Murphy, Vice-President.

The Tropolitan

Frank Deason, Editor.

Mary Lucy Phillips, Assistant Editor.

This year the Tropolitan has kept the students informed on campus events and campus controversy. The "Trop" has presented controversial issues to the students and this has given the students a larger voice in their government.

Editorials of this year have been of very high standard and the feelings expressed in these editorials have stirred interest in the minds of TSU students. The Trop's new big picture front page has served as an eye catcher and has prompted a new look for the Trop.

The purpose of the Tropolitan is to cover the news, the sports, and the other campus activities. Under the direction of Editor Frank Deason, Assistant Editor Mary Lucy Phillips, and Advisor John Mecklenburg, the Trop has succeeded in its goal, to produce a top flight college newspaper. The Tropolitan is a student paper of which one can be proud.

Dallas Trip Starts Palladium Planning

Rhonda Kelly served as Editor for her second year.

Members of the PALLADIUM Staff are responsible for its publication. Putting out a book of its quality and size takes untold hours, but the rewards are there, also. The PALLADIUM editor and assistant editor again this year attended the Associated Press Convention in Dallas. At this convention over 8,000 young journalists met to discuss all phases of journalism. The annual PALLADIUM Beauty Pageant is the publication's major campus-wide activity. Each year at this pageant, five young ladies are chosen as the year's campus beauties and they appear in the Personalities section of the PALLADIUM.

Patti Mungenast, Assistant Editor.

After pictures have been made, they have to be stamped, named, labeled, numbered, and cropped before finally being sent to the publisher. Each staff member had some part of this chore. Time is an important factor in the making of a yearbook. There are countless numbers of schedules to follow and deadlines to meet . . . even before that one final date to finish.

Steve Rowell, Associate Editor in charge of organizations, sports, publications, dorms and ventilation.

Rodney Spotts, Business Manager.

Patti Mungenast was in charge of academics and classes.

Janice Johnson and Jan Mock coordinated pictures and ideas to help make the Ventilation section.

Miss Rhonda Kelly presents a copy of the 1971 PALLADIUM to Gov. George C. Wallace. The 1971 book included complete coverage of the commencement excercise when Governor Wallace was awarded the honorary degree, Doctor of Humane Letters.

The Sound of the South, the Concert Band With Finesse.

The transition from the show band to the concert stage is an easy step for the Sound of the South. As only the finest young musicians gain membership, they adapt themselves readily to the requirements of serious scores. Director John M. Long believes more finesse is required by the Concert Band than that demanded by the marching group. He believes that audiences like good concert music so the concert approach is emphasized throughout the Troy State music program. The Band presents its spring concert in April of each year and it also makes a tour each spring playing many concerts in Alabama, Georgia, and Florida.

Dr. John M. Long, Director

Mr. Don Patmon

Collegiate Singers

The new director of the Collegiate Singers is Dr. William R. Denison and his accompanist is Mr. Charles Calkins. The Collegiate Singers is a select choir of about sixty voices chosen by audition from the entire student body. Repertoire for the group includes the finest choral music from the sixteenth century to the present. The Collegiates are known for the variety of their programs and the versatility of the personnel. The 1971-72 season for the Collegiates included television performances in Dothan, Montgomery, and Birmingham, as well as a nationwide Christmas radio program. A large audience attended the Christmas Vespers in December and the Spring Concert in May, both were held on the Troy Campus. A successful four-day tour in March took the Collegiates through North Alabama, where they sang eight concerts in Birmingham, Huntsville, Hartselle, Guntersville, and Decatur.

Dr. William Denison

TSU Choir

The Troy State University Choir which is composed of over three hundred and fifty members, performed selections from The Elija. The concert was held in Smith Hall Auditorium during spring quarter. The Choir which is under the direction of Mr. Philip Kelley and is accompanied by Dr. William Denison, has progressed in many ways during the academic year. Membership in the choir is non limited and nonselective.

Alumni Hall

Alumni Hall, Troy's largest housing facility, houses 538 active young men. The men of Alumni strive to make their dormitory an active place to live. Alumni Hall is composed of two wings which are joined in the middle by a lobby, a television lounge, a recreation room and several offices. Alumni's newspaper the Alumni Wings kept the residents of Alumni informed during this year. For the past four summers the men of Alumni have moved to B wing so that Alumni Hall could be made into a coed housing facility.

Clements Hall

Action is the word that best describes Clements Hall. The women of Clements are always active in their goal for academic and extracurricular participation. These young ladies have won the homecoming display contest for several years. This year they caged the Lions of Florence State to help the Wave win a homecoming victory. Numerous parties kept the women busy with planning, participating and cleaning up.

Gardner Hall

Gardner Hall is a busy dorm for active women. The directors of Gardner try to make dormitory life as pleasant as possible. Parties and other group dorm activities serve as a means of fellowship for Gardner's residents. The women of Gardner grow through associations together and during the course of the academic year long lasting friendships develop. Through associations with others Gardner residents strive to make Troy State a better and friendlier university.

Hamil Hall

Activities for each quarter kept the residents of Hamil Hall entertained this year. During Fall Quarter the minds of the women of Hamil turned to their Homecoming display. This year their theme was "The Devil Made Me Do It." Also during Fall Quarter a Christmas party was held for needy families. The children received Christmas presents and the families received gifts of food. The highlight of Winter Quarter at Hamil Hall was a Valentine party. The year was rounded out by a chicken dinner and swimming party at Murphree Park.

Pace Hall

Pace Hall serves as a center point for the lives of Greek women on the Troy campus. Pace Hall contains the four sorority chapter rooms. Pace is also the home of many non-greek women. Activities at Pace include parties, devotions, and group activities. Pace Hall builds a train of thought in a woman's mind which lives with her for many years. Monday nights are always busy at Pace because of the Greek chapter meetings. Women of Pace are members of many campus activities and therefore Pace Hall serves as a hub with its women branching out to find themselves.

Governor Wallace Heads TSU Board of Trustees

GOVERNOR GEORGE C. WALLACE

As head of Troy State University's Board of Trustees, Governor George C. Wallace fosters growth in academic standing. Governor Wallace is well known for his leadership in providing educational opportunities for the citizens of Alabama. The rich rewards reaped by our citizenry because of his steadfast interest in mental health and medical schools are also well known. Through his ideals and policies, Governor Wallace has demonstrated his desire to serve his state and the public. We are grateful for the guidance he has given education in our institution and state.

Governor and Mrs. Wallace and Family

Troy State's Board of Trustees Works and Encourages Better University Life

Troy State University is operated through a Board of Trustees under the direction of Governor George C. Wallace. Board members control the University's operation. This position was previously taken through the State Board of Education.

The Board of Trustees is headed by chairman Mr. McDowell Lee. The members of the Board are constantly striving for the betterment of all educational facilities at Troy State.

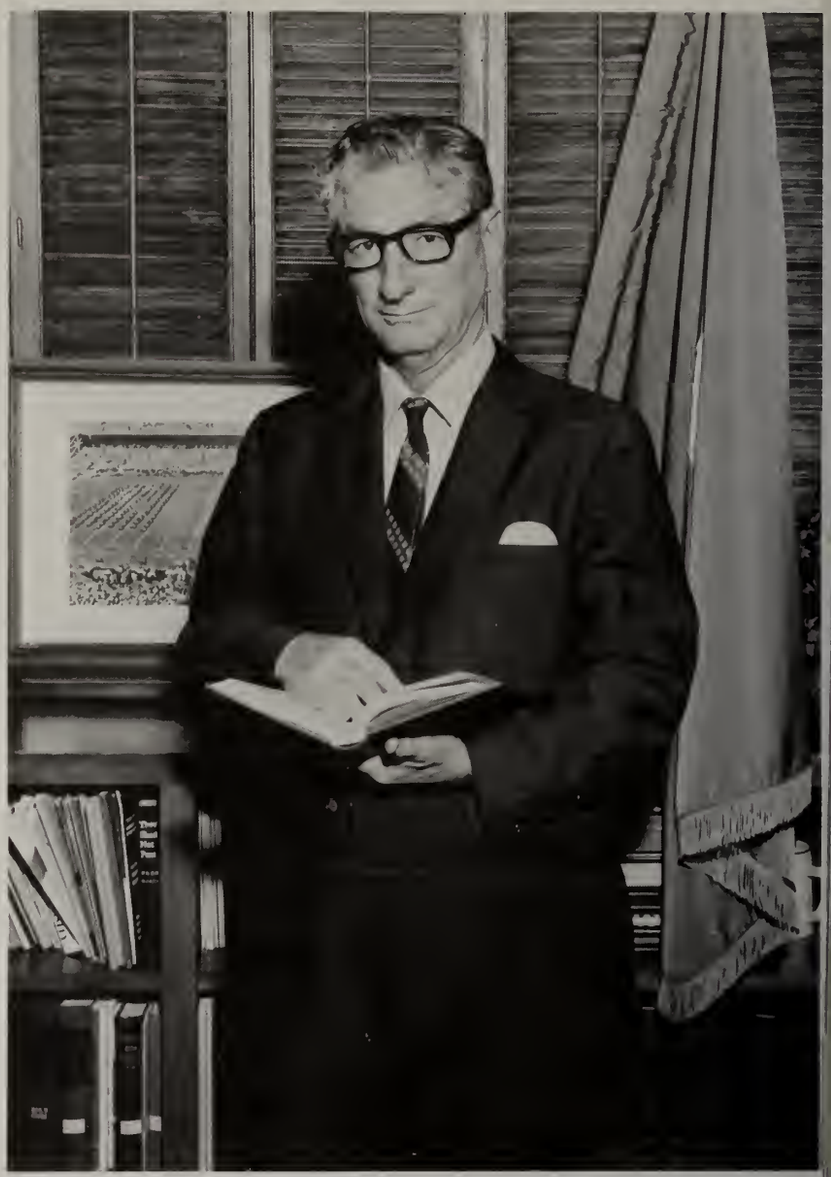

eft to right: Mr. J. Wilbert Jordan, Mrs. Alice Moseley, Dr. Ralph Adams, Mr. McDowell Lee, Mr. Jack Giles, Judge Jack Wallace, Mr. Robert Kelly, and Mr. C. J. Hartley. Not ictured: Dr. Leroy Brown, Dr. Robert M. Guillot, Mr. Robert T. Wilson, and William S. Thomas (student representative).

President Adams Strives for Expansion and Growth at Troy State University

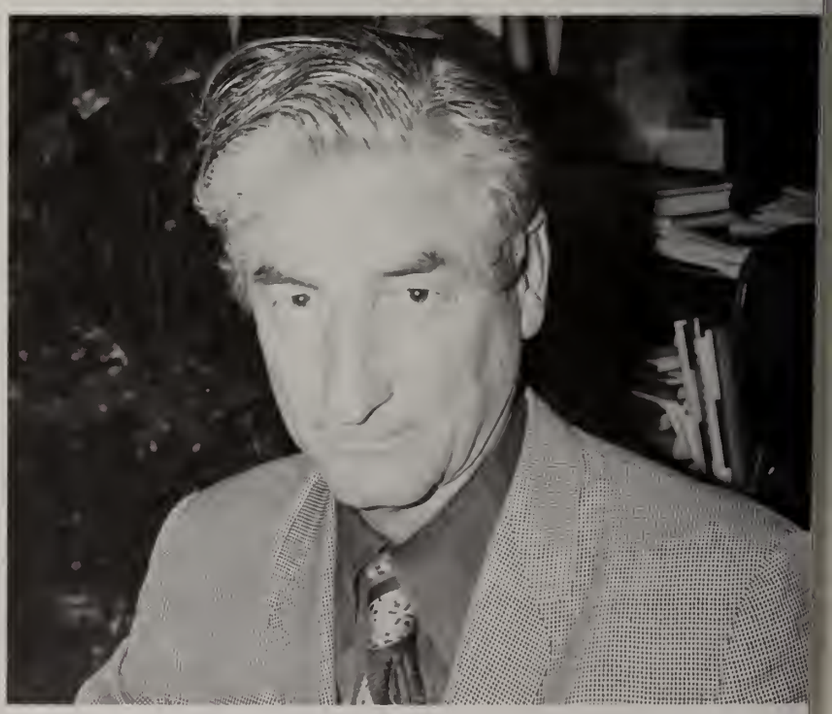

President Adams serves as the administrative head of Troy State University. President Adams has had much to do with the growth and development of Troy State in the past year. A reorganization of the University to include new undergraduate schools has been one of his many accomplishments. Plans are now being developed for a new multimillion dollar student center.

The University has increased its enrollment and the graduate program has been expanded. President Ralph Adams serves Troy State with the sincere desire to make it an educational institution of the highest caliber.

Troy State has experienced much growth under the leadership of President Adams.

Adademic Affairs Headed by W. T. Wilks

Dr. W. T. Wilks served his fourth year as Vice-President of Academic Affairs. He is responsible for the direction and improvement of instructional programs at the University.

Faculty recruitment, budget allocation, and curriculum development are connected with this office. All academic publications are also released through Dr. Wilk's office.

Mr. Donald Gibson serves as Dean of Student Affairs.

Gibson, Williford Head Student Affairs

The division of Student Affairs is one of the most important on campus.

All programs which deal directly with students are handled by this division. Mr. Donald Gibson served his third year as the Dean of Student Affairs. Under his leadership, and with the capable assistance of Mr. Robert Williford, the needs and problems of Troy State's students are met.

Mr. Robert Williford serves as Assistant Dean.

Business Manager Vital for Growth of University

The office of Business Manager is vital to the growth and integrity of any university. All expenditures of funds, bids, awarding of contracts and construction of new buildings are a few of the important functions of this office.

Mr. Albert Whittle completed his second year as business manager. The office of Comptroller works directly under the business manager and is charged with keeping an accurate account of all funds. Mr. Thomas Peeks heads this office.

Mr. Steve Parker heads the Office of Purchasing and Inventory Control. Mr. Parker's job is to save university funds through new bid procedures and close accounting of needs.

Services Provided for University Students

The Admissions Office is directed by Mr. Gary Branch. All inquiries concerning Troy State University, recruiting and junior college relations are handled by this office. Student Activities are headed by Mr. Marvin Vickers. Mr. Vickers works with the Student Government Association and other organizations in coordinating student activities on campus. Mr. Vickers also served as the advisor to the Interfraternity Council. Mr. A. H. Coker, Jr. acts as the Director of Housing and Conferences and he assigns all residence hall rooms and schedules the use of university facilities.

The office of Financial Aid is headed by Mr. Jeff Golden and Mr. Jim Bockman. All loans, scholarships, work programs, and veteran benefits are handled by this office.

Mr. A. H. Coker approves use of university facilities.

Mr. Jim Bockman served as the Assistant Director of Financial Aid.

Mr. Jeff Golden acted as Director of Financial Aid.

Mr. Walter Sullivan acts as Assistant Registrar.

Mr. Marvin Vickers coordinated student activities.

Counseling Services Open to All Students

The Counseling Services Office has expanded its staff and services during the past few years. New to the Counseling Services Office is Miss Mary Jane Baker. Mr. Robert Westbrook is also back. The Counseling Office has adjusted its office hours so that it can be of more benefit to Troy State University students. This office is located in Smith Hall and available to all students. Tutors can also be assigned to any student needing academic assistance.

SAGA Dining Hall — A Welcome Change

Saga Dining Hall proved to be a welcomed change to the resident students at Troy. New to the dining hall this year were the ice cream and hamburger stands, the help-yourself-tables, and the unusual fashion shows.

Student Center, Physical Plant Serves Troy State University

The Student Center is the most frequently used building on campus. It provides students with a cafeteria, post office, book store, and a center of general activities, all under the roof of one building. Students may obtain snacks or a complete meal in the Student Center cafeteria. Campus mail is directed through the TSU Post Office. The post office brings in outside mail as well as circulating on-campus handmail items.

The various campus facilities are kept in proper running order by the Physical Plant. Mr. Melton Carter, head of the Physical Plant, has under his guidance the maintenance of all residence halls, office buildings, and classrooms on campus. This department also contains janitorial and sanitation services.

Resource Center Offers Many Different Services

A well equipped library is the center of learning in any university.

For as long as one lives and is extended the ability to read and research he can learn. Materials on all subjects are available to students through the Wallace Resource Center.

The library not only offers shelves of pertinent books, but also gives the added use of recordings, films, and slides to students. Subscriptions to many types of magazines aid in keeping students abreast with the developments of today. Newspapers from a cross section of the nation convey the news which will one day become history.

Aerospace Studies Department

Air Force ROTC provides exceptional opportunities for outstanding cadets to study National Military issues affecting the vital security interests of the United States. The diverse curriculum encourages scholarly inquiry, analysis, critical thinking, imagination, and creativity. In addition to the demanding academic work, the cadets are intimately involved in the personalized leadership development program.

Upon graduation, the cadets are commissioned as Air Force officers who serve their country as professional, dedicated and responsible leaders.

Air Force ROTC is also rewarding in a material sense. Full scholarships, generous stipends and numerous other financial benefits are available to those outstanding students who meet the high standards of the commissioning program.

Dr. Malcom Agnew offers courses in Greek and Latin Literature. The importance of these cultures in today's society is stressed. These courses are open to all students.

Dr. Agnew came to Troy State Unviersity from Boston University and has travelled extensively in Italy, Greece, and other European countries. Recently President Adams named Dr. Agnew Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Speech and Drama Promotes Playmakers

The speech and drama department is responsible for the Playmakers productions. The Playmakers who function as the performing group of the speech and drama department represent the efforts of the speech staff to teach the art of public speaking. Although Dr. Dalton and Miss Goodwin go into retirement at the end of spring quarter, the speech and drama department will carry on in the fine tradition which they have established.

English Department Pursues Academic Excellence

The Department of English, Journalism, and Foreign Languages continues with marked success to pursue academic excellence. Exceptionally gifted faculty members with varied experiences and backgrounds bring the world to the students, and in doing so establish and maintain the excellent reputation of the department. Additional recognition came to the department this past year when the National English Honor Society, Sigma Tau Delta, established a chapter at Troy State. During the past year the department launched a bold composition program, and the results have thus far exceeded the most optimistic predictions. In fact, the English curriculum retains its flexibility in order to enable students to prepare for a wide variety of employment opportunities which demand technical and creative skills in communication, education, entertainment and commerce. Legislative approval was recently granted the proposed Hall School of Journalism, and solid foundations are being laid for a center of excellence in communications skill and technology. New programs will be developed and outstanding faculty will be recruited to assist Troy State University in preparing graduates who will fulfill the myriad needs and demands of our rapidly changing, complex society.

History Department Expands

The Department of History and Social Science grew from fourteen to seventeen faculty members with the addition of Dr. Szaz, Political Science; Mr. James Allen, U. S. History; Mr. Richard Kenworthy, Medieval-Renaissance History; and Mr. Curtis Porter, Russian History.

The Department added new courses in Political Science enabling it to offer a minor for non-teaching degree candidates and has modified the majors in Social Science to strengthen them. General Studies Sociology was offered for the first time and appeared to be quite popular.

In the Winter Quarter, this department joined the School of Business and the Department of English in advocating pre-registration in hopes that it might eventually lead to pre-registration via computer as the University improves its computer capability.

Math Department Strives to Meet the Student's Needs

Today man is faced with problems and solutions unique to any society of the past. Stress is placed in the field of math and engineering. In this age of rocketry and space travel the role of mathematics is increasing in value.

Physical Science Department Anticipates Change

This year the Physical Science Department engaged in a Departmental Self-Study in connection with Southern Association Accreditation. As a result of this study, curriculum changes were recommended and approved in the physics program. One change which might be of general interest is the introduction of a calculus based beginning physics course in addition to the course presently offered. The relevance of the Physical Science Department may be seen in the fact that many of the problems confronted by society have resulted from man's unwise use of scientific knowledge and technology. The solution to these problems cannot be found in a single discipline, but certainly the chemists, the physicists, and geologists will contribute to finding solutions.

Music Department

The Troy State Music Department has undergone a remarkable growth during the past few years. The music curriculum has been greatly strengthened and now offers the Bachelor of Music Education degree including 72 hours of required music courses. The quality of performance of music organizations has been raised to a high level of excellence.

The music staff has also grown with the department. Institutions where the music faculty have studied include Indiana University, Chicago Musical College, University of Michigan, Florida State University, and other outstanding schools.

One purpose of the Music Department is to train students whose primary aim is to become teachers of music in the music-major area. A second purpose is to meet the needs of all the students of the college by the enrichment of their personal development through participation in musical activities and through the general exposure to and study of music, developing understanding of its meaning as an art and experience.

Music Opportunities at Troy Include:

Nursing School Begins Its Second Program

The newer program in the School of Nursing is a two year course of studies in nursing. With facilities for this program in Montgomery, the faculty is planning to begin classes next fall. This type of nursing program is new to this region of the state. and will help meet the educational and health needs of the people in south-central Alabama. The first nursing content courses were taught this fall to students in the four year nursing program and these students next year will comprise the first graduates of TSU School of Nursing. This School should experience much growth in the next few years.

J. Edgar Hoover

ANY MAN who dominated a federal agency as long as J. Edgar Hoover, who took over the scandal-ridden FBI in 1924, had to make enemies.

Most of Hoover's enemies were the right ones — communists, for example, whose ranks the FBI infiltrated to such an extent the party had internal security problems greater than those it posed for the nation.

Hoover hated communism with all the passion of an evangelist denouncing the devil. This may have led him to excesses of vigilance, as did his 48 years of unprecedented power.

But, by and large, the FBI remained pure. No inside scandal ever touched it after Hoover commenced cleaning up the agency founded in 1908 after demands by President Theodore Roosevelt.

Even Sen. Sam Ervin, North Carolina's sensitive defender of civil liberties, recently said that of all the agencies investigating Americans — Army Intelligence, the CIA, etc. — the FBI had the best record of scrupulous adherence to American principles.

Hoover remained too long in the office, well beyond the time when he should have relinquished his powers to a younger man. This longevity prompted the demands for his retirement — that and the fact that to many leftists he was the devil.

When Hoover took command in 1924, there were less than 500 agents. Today the massive organization employs some 15,000 in all, including 6,700 agents.

Whatever errors of excess and judgment Hoover may have made, they were eclipsed by his exemplary service to the country he loved without apology or qualification, despising all of its enemies, from common crooks to subversives.

His death at 77 eliminates one of the presidential campaign issues — to replace him. But to most Americans, the nation has lost a great patriot who, on balance, contributed more to national security and the fight against crime than any man, or hundreds of men.

His successor will not find it easy to measure up to Hoover's service and dedication—if, indeed, that is remotely possible.

J. Edgar Hoover was more than the nation's No. 1 cop. He was an institution, a legend, and will remain so in death, whatever the detractors and debunkers write of him.

He served too long, but he served exceedingly well, with unquestionable loyalty and conspicuous integrity and efficiency. He did create a cult of personality over the agency, but how else could it have performed so well in peace and war without a tough taskmaster?

And J. Edgar Hoover was as tough a man as the country is ever likely to see. That quality created hatred, but for the most part it was the kind of hatred generated by fear among those of criminal or subversive bent, plus hysterical leftists forever decrying the "police state" that didn't exist because Hoover wouldn't permit it to exist.

He did the job he was commissioned to do, reappointed by every President under whom he served.

The FBI was his life, it has been said. More precisely, the United States was his life.

Beauties Named at PALLADIUM Sponsored Pageant

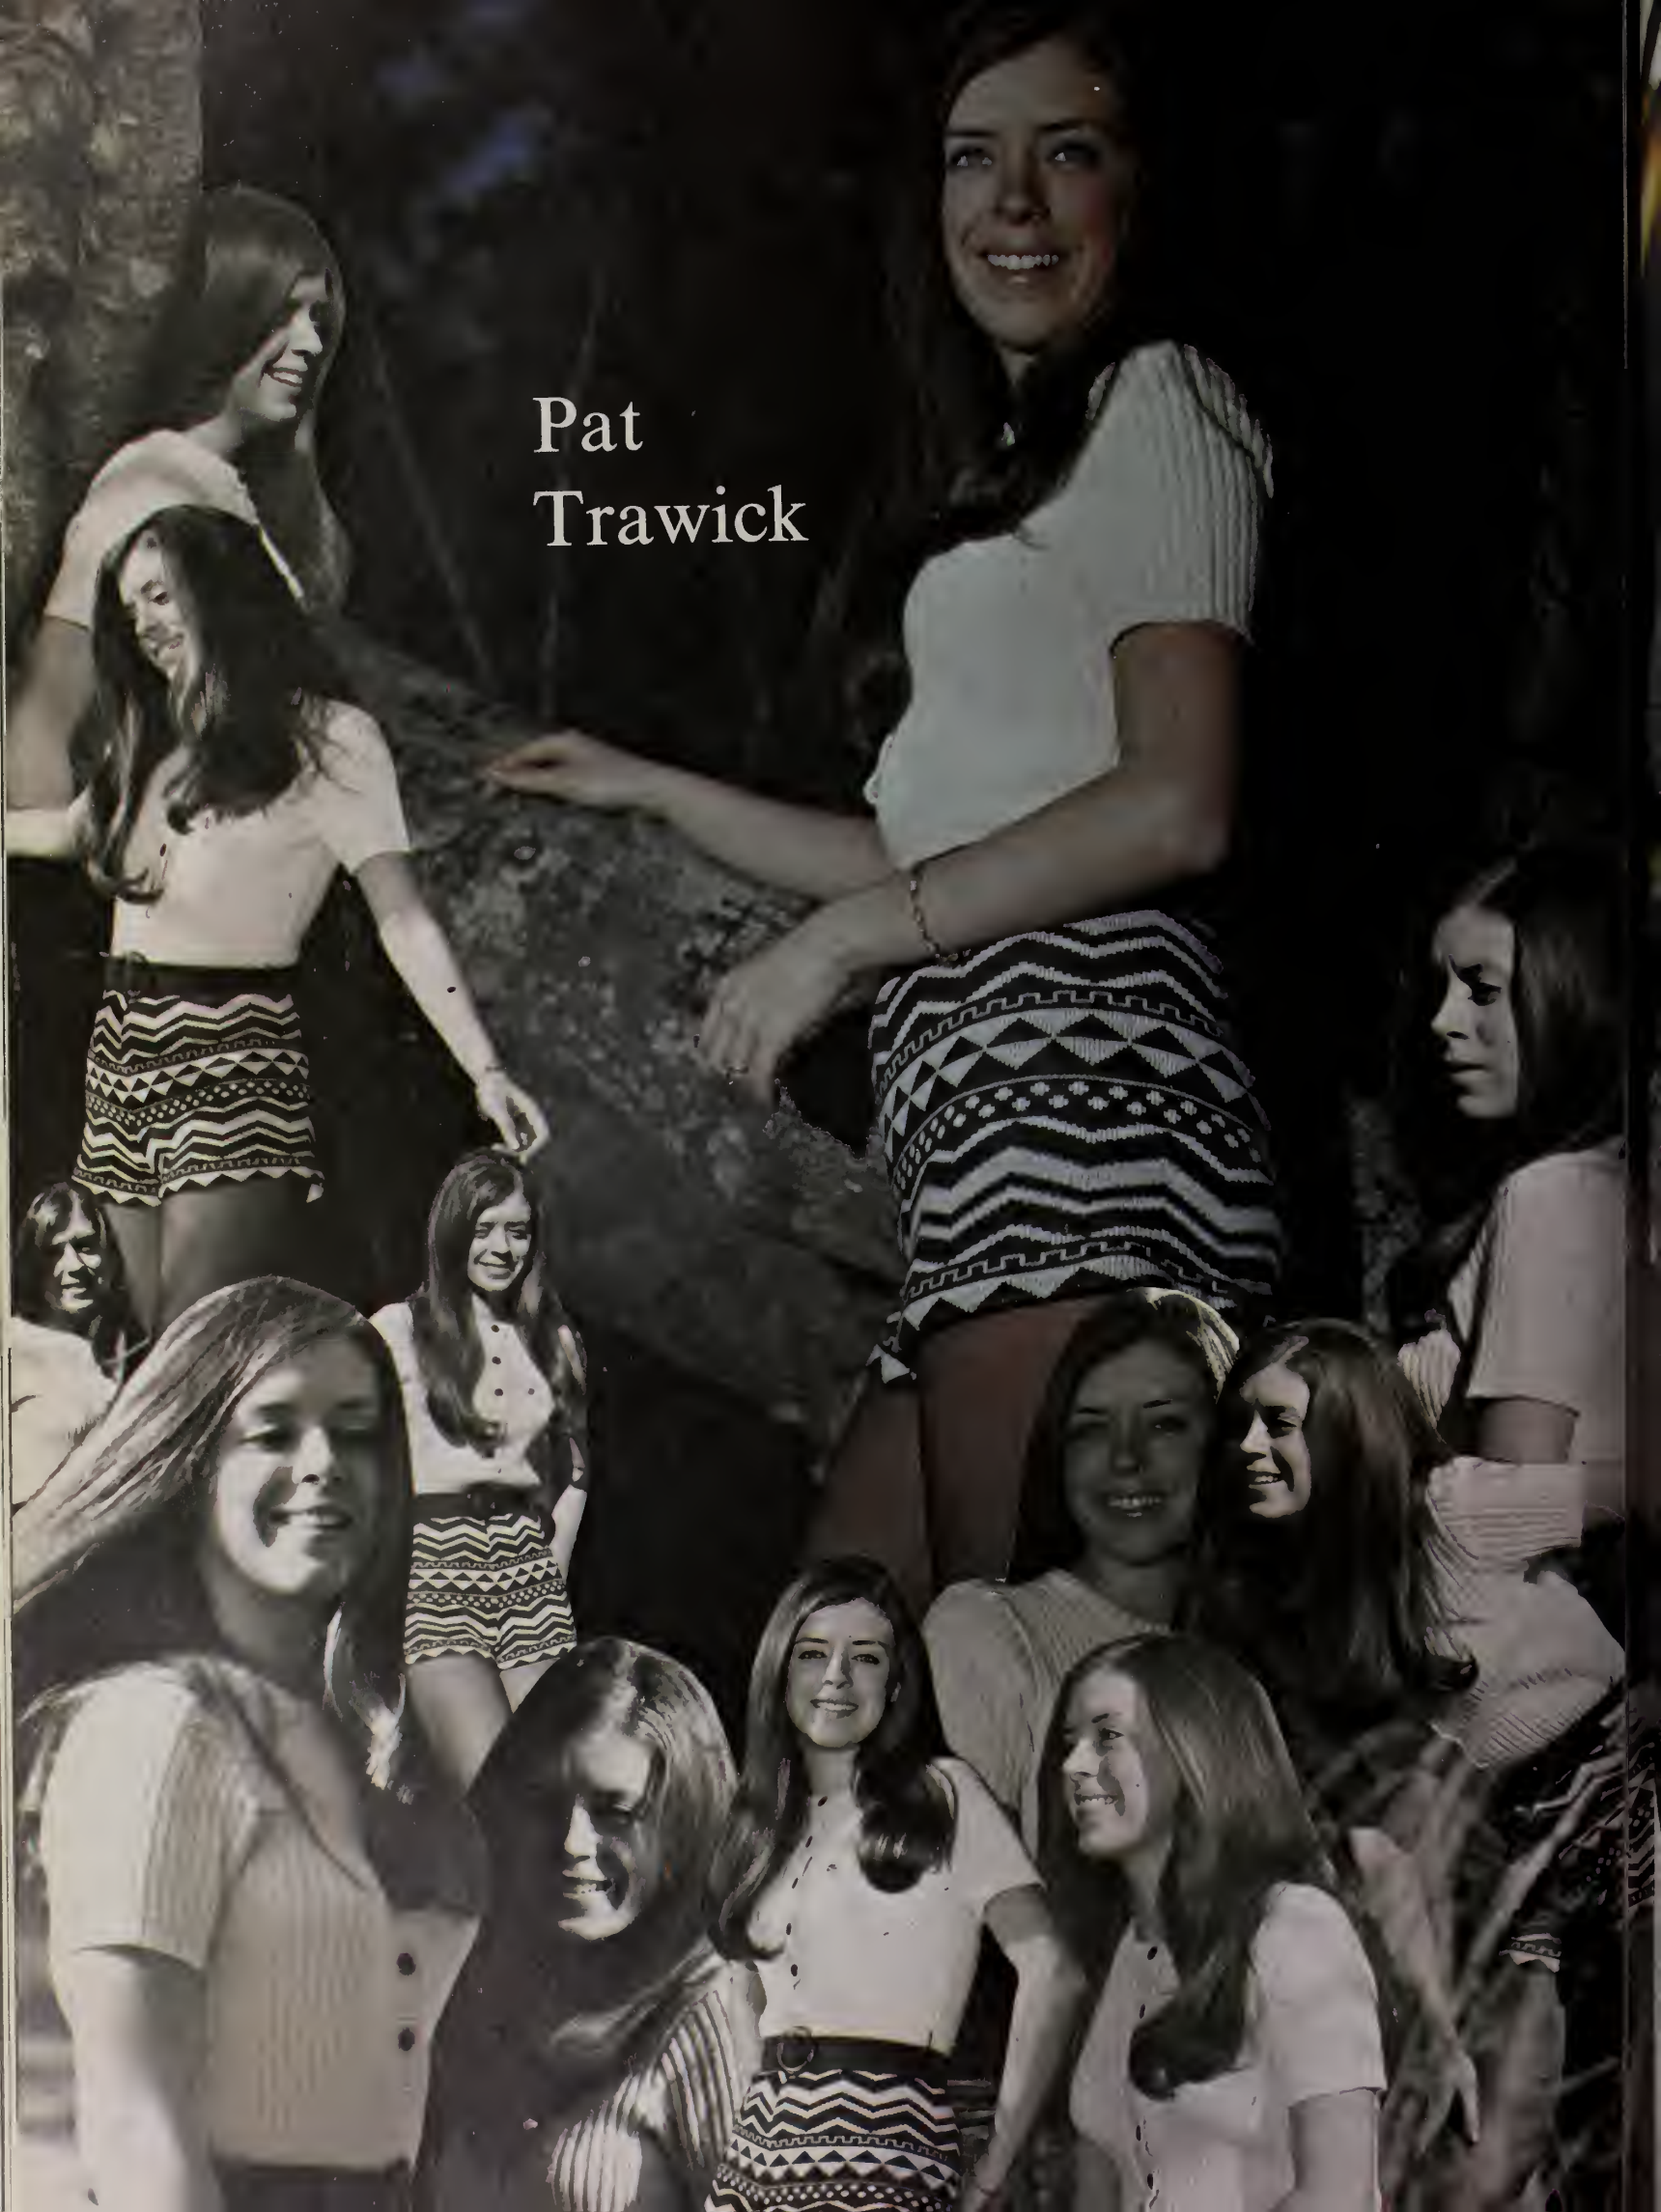

The annual campus beauty pageant was held in mid-November in Smith Auditorium. Five young women were chosen from a field of forty-five contestants to appear in the Personalities section of the 1972 PALLADIUM as Campus Beauties. There were: Janet Wilkinson, Pat Trawick, Phyllis Jennings, Faye Allen, and Susan Graddy. The contestants appeared in evening wear and were judged on poise, choice of attire, and beauty. During an intermission, the audience was entertained by Jim Bell's Jazz Band as they presented several popular and jazz numbers. Escorts for the evening were Benny Pinckard, Mike Kelly, Charlie Hovan, and Woody Canter. Serving as Master of Ceremonies was Mr. Joe Griffin.

Stetson and Lloyd Named Mr. and Miss TSU

Mr. Rick Stetson and Miss Libby Lloyd have been named Mr. and Miss Troy State University for 1972. They were nominated by student organizations, passed through a screening committee, and finally selected by student vote. Mr. and Miss TSU are selected on the bases of academic achievement, participation in campus activities, personality, leadership ability, and overall contribution to student life while at Troy State.

Libby, a junior from Greenville, Alabama, is majoring in physical education and minoring in mathematics. She is active in HPER Club where she serves the group as secretary, Adelphe Honor Society, and Challenge Life. She has also served as a cheerleader, Circle K Sweetheart, and Sigma Pi Little Sister.

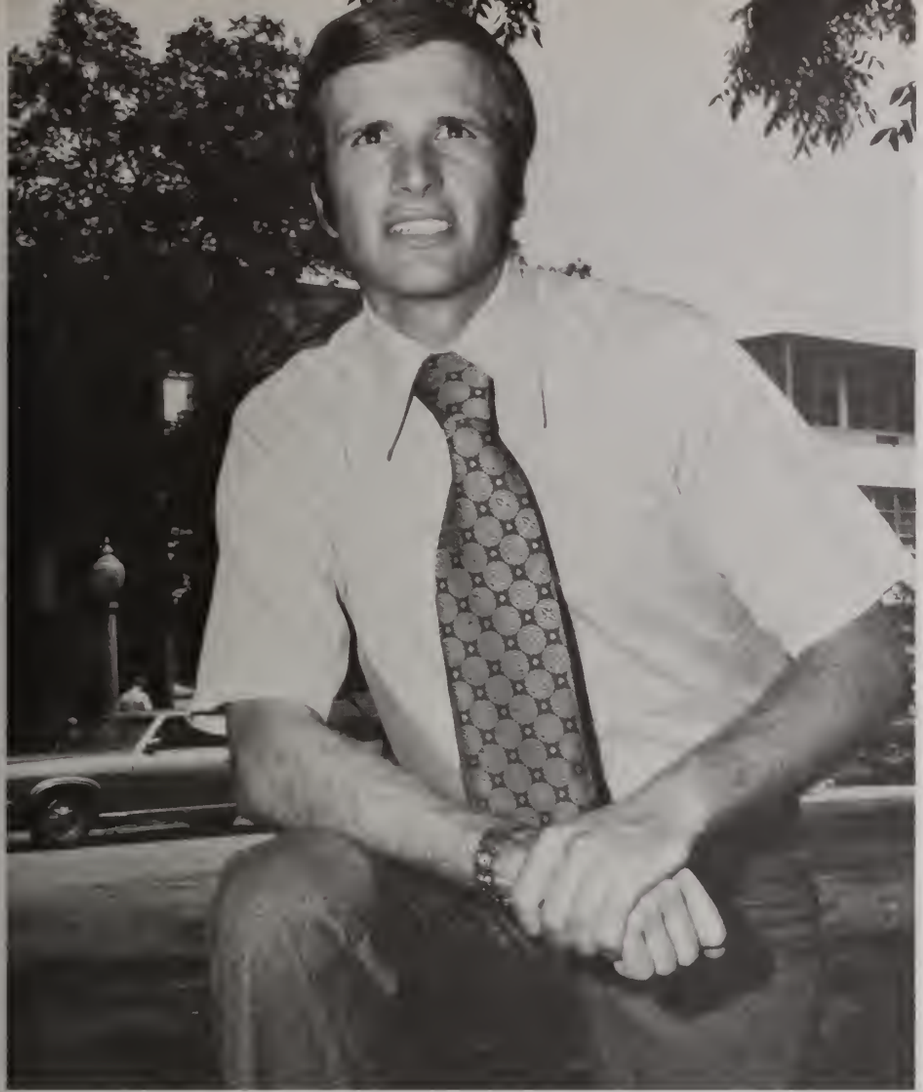

Rick came to Troy from Barrington, Illinois. He graduated in June of this year with a degree in physical education and speech. While at Troy State, he was a member of Delta Chi Fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega, Playmakers (Vice-President), Tropolitan Staff (Sports Editor), Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges, Who's Who of College Athletes, Dean's List, and Kappa Omicron. He was Captain of the Cross Country Team, Conference Three Mile Champion, and the school record holder for the two and three mile run. Rick was also selected the Most Outstanding Senior Man for 1972.

Miss Libby Lloyd.

Mr. Rick Stetson.

Outstanding Students Named At Honors Day

Honors Day 1972 ceremonies took place in the auditorium of Smith Hall on Thursday, May 25. This year's program was planned by a committee made up of representatives of every honor society on campus with the overall planning done by members of Phi Kappa Phi.

Recognized for outstanding achievement in their respective fields were Julian Byron Brackin, Jr. (Phi Beta Kappa Association Award and Colonel Dames of America Award in History); Carol Dawn Jennings (Phi Kappa Phi Scholastic Award); Diana Lee Dunbar (Adelphe's Outstanding Freshman Girl Award); Nancy Colleen Parmar (Spires' Scholastic and Service Award); Bonnie Jean MacLean (Gamma Beta Phi Member Award); Sheila Roberts Penn (Bernard E. Williams Award in English); Robert Melvin Howard (Colonial Dames of America Award in History); Emily Watford Maddox (R.H. Ervin Award in Education); George H. Wallace (Accounting Award); Roger Poulin (Delta Sigma Pi Scholarship Key); Suzanne Perrin (Sigma Alpha Iota Dean's Award); Rhonda Ledlow Vistart (Senior Award in Music); and Michael Edwards (Alpha Psi Omega Speech and Theater Award). Other students recognized were Pamela Powell Hicks (Biological Science Award); Glenda J. Sander (Student Nurses Award); Thomas Wynn, Jr. (Distinguished Cadet Award); and Anna R. Plott (General Military Course Cadet Award).

Members of the faculty and student body tapped for Phi Kappa Phi, Adelphes, Spires, Kappa Omicron, and Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges were also honored at the Honors Day ceremony.

Adelphe's Outstanding Freshman Girl Award went to Diana Lee Dunbar.

Carol Dawn Jennings accepted the Phi Kappa Phi Scholastic Award.

Sheila Roberts Penn received the award for the most outstanding English student.

Thomas Wynn, Jr. was named the distinguished cadet for 1972.

Dr. Ralph Adams and Dr. Max Rafferty were present at the luncheon honoring Rick Stetson, Most Outstanding Senior Man, and Rhonda Kelly, Most Outstanding Senior Woman for 1972.

Julian Byron Brackin, Jr. and Robert Melvin Howard received the Colonial Dames of America Award in History.

Bonnie Jean MacLean was presented the Gamma Beta Phi Member Award.

POTPOURRI

If you want to be happy,
Be.

Tolstoy

I shall pass through this world but once, any good therefore that I can do or any kindness I can show to any human being,
let me do it now.
Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

Unknown

If I had longer arms I'd push the clouds away
Or make them hang above the water somewhere else.
But I'm just a man who needs
And wants mostly things he'll never have;
Looking for that thing that's hardest to find . . . himself.
I've been gone a long time now
And along the way I've learned some things.
You have to make the good times yourself ——
Take the little times and make them big times
And save the times that are alright for the bad times.
I've never been able to push the clouds away by myself
Help me . . . please.

Rod McKuen

Keep on Truckin'...

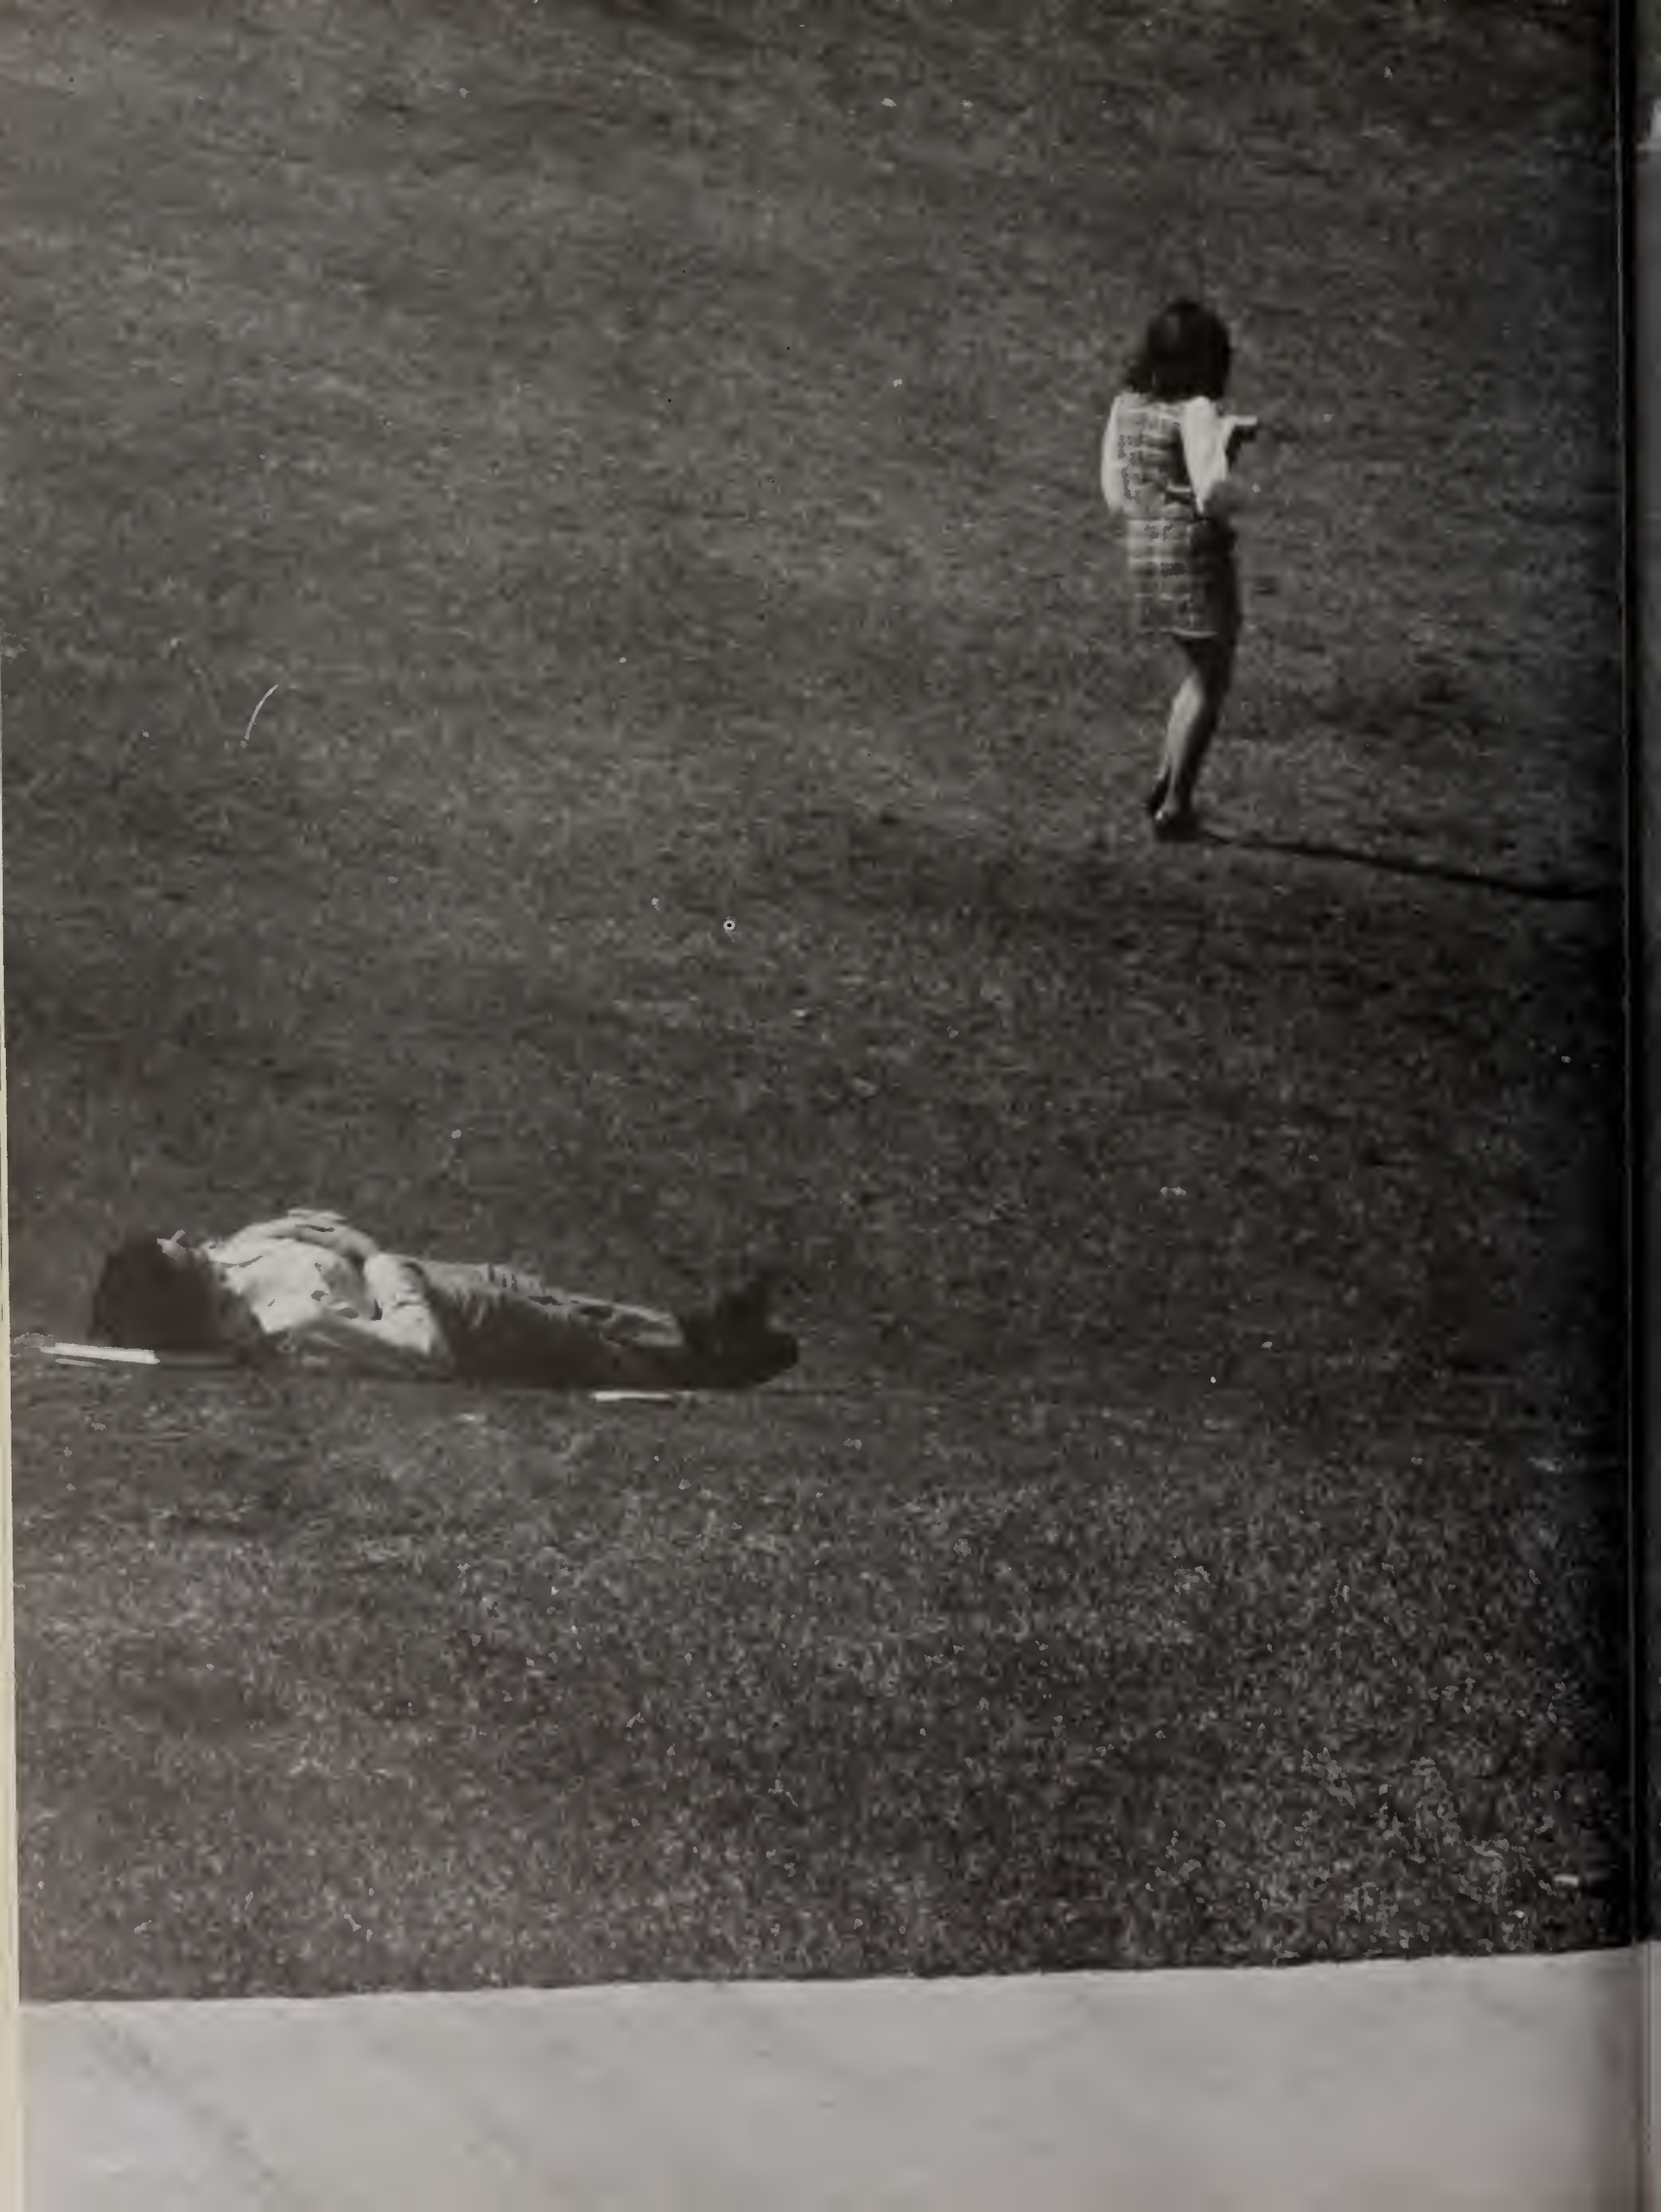

I do my thing, and you do your thing.
I am not in this world to live up to your expectations.
And you are not in this world to live up to mine.
You are you and I am I,
And if by chance we find each other,
It's beautiful.

NEW YORK.

sole consignees in the United States for that ously the lway Timekeepers,

HEAVY STERLING SILVER CASES,
SPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR ARMY SALE.

Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper of Feb. 21, 1863, HUBBARD'S TIMEKEEPERS are becoming proverbial for accuracy and reliability. They are particularly adapted for officers in the army and travelers." Army and Navy Gazette, of Philadelphia, in its issue of May 9, reviewing this watch, says: "We are pleased to see that the importations of the HUBBARD are meeting the enormous sale that such extraordinary prices as theirs so richly merits. These watches are produced by no other House, far exceeding all manufactures in point of accuracy and elegance, solidity and promptness to their patrons render them a desirable medium for traders in the army." RAILWAY TIMEKEEPER has HEAVY SOLID SILVER CASES, beautiful white enamel dial, gold hands, with superior regulated movement, and to run and keep excellent time! Price per half dozen, $54. By mail, $1 65 additional for each. Should retail readily at from $20 to $50 each. Large quantities of less than six.

HUBBARD BRO'S
IMPORTERS of WATCHES
NEW YORK.

Are the sole consignees in the United States for that unique novelty the

Railway Timekeepers,

WITH HEAVY STERLING SILVER CASES, ESPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR ARMY SALES.

Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper of Feb. 21, 1863, says: "HUBBARD'S TIMEKEEPERS are becoming proverbial for their accuracy and reliability. They are particularly valuable for officers in the army and travelers."

The Army and Navy Gazette, of Philadelphia, in its Number of May 9, reviewing this watch, says: "We are pleased to see that the importations of the HUBBARD Bros. are meeting the enormous sale that such extraordinary enterprise as theirs so richly merits. These watches are novelties produced by no other House, far exceeding other manufactures in point of accuracy and elegance. Fidelity and promptness to their patrons render the House a desirable medium for traders in the army."

The RAILWAY TIMEKEEPER has HEAVY SOLID STERLING SILVER CASES, beautiful white enamel dial, handsome gold hands, with superior regulated movement, warranted to run and keep excellent time! Price per case of half dozen, $54. By mail, $1 65 additional for postage. Should retail readily at from $20 to $50 each. Not sold in quantities of less than six.

Troy, Alabama 36081

MISS PAT TRAWICK

MISS CHRISTY ARRINGTON

Advisors: Mr. Joe Griffin, Dr. Gene Hanson, Mr. Erving Wood. Not pictured are Dean Gary Branch, Mr. John Klutz, Mr. Tom Arrington, and Mr. Robert Westbrook.

The White Carnation Girls and Sweethearts are our pick and choice. They represent some of the most attractive and dedicated girls on our campus. Their charm and poise are constant assets to the Brothers of the Bond and our continuous efforts to maintain Delta Chi Fraternity as an elite group of gentlemen.

The men who advise our fraternity are providing a constant source of advice and counsel. Their dedication to our generation will always be remembered with admiration and deep appreciation.

LAST WORD

This book started more than a year ago — seems like five It's fact now, no longer a dream. It's real and it has rea meaning for real people, that is, for the people who really bother to care
if it matters
Some people will appreciate our efforts. Others won't tak the time to pick up their PALLADIUMS at all. If you happen to care
this book is not the same as last year's. It can't be. It' still got some tradition, a dirty word. No — tradition exists and must be recorded. Tradition is histor and this is a history book
Here, in its own frame, between two covers, is study of a university and its community, if it matters
To each person who has been a part or apart
as the case may be of this university, Troy State is a different plac with a different story
For each person, the PALLADIUM should be a different book — with a unique ke to unlock memories when you wipe the dus off this volume and thumb through it te years from now
Perhap
the words and pictures found here will hel
you tell your own version of the story
A young staff built the book — mostl inexperienced
We built a professional book by thousands o hours of hard work and problems — problem overcome by help from our friends
So
in the final hours spent in completing thi book, I'm struck with the true significanc of our efforts. Thanks must be said t misters Benton, Gibson, and Mecklenbur nd to Dr. Adams for their great guidanc and patience as we worked
More thanks to Jim Robbins of Taylo
Publishing Company, Steve Neshem of Lorr
Studios and to Debbie Sanders in th
office across the hall
The staff, who overworked, were the best. T
Patti, Steve, Art, Rodney
Nancy, Jane, Gail, Jan, an
Janice, I thank you
There were others, too. Roommate and friends sometimes caught th blunt end of our short tempers an ill moods. I thank you all. Ou months of "gotta get this yearboo out" are ended. It's over. I some ways it feels good to be has-been
